Chinese merchant bank zooms into Formula One

This is rather intriguing. Click on the link below and you will see that Caterham, the Formula One team that recently found itself in financial difficulty, has found a new sponsor in North Square Blue Oak and is set to race in the Abu Dhabi Grand Prix this weekend….

Sponsor watch: 2014 Abu Dhabi Grand Prix

After two races of absence, Caterham made a return to the grid thanks to their crowdfunding project. Some of the rewards for the donations were appearances on the car in Abu Dhabi.

The CT05 was therefore full of different logos and names, most of which were British companies getting world-wide exposure for relatively small amounts of money. Among the most interesting were a small-town pub The Windmill Inn in South East England, a hotel/restaurant in the Swiss Alps named Bellevue, as well as Datatag (anti-theft technologies).

The most visible exposure was given to NSBO as the investment bank's logo appeared on the car's sidepods.

Will Stevens to drive for Caterham F1 team at Abu Dhabi test

Will Stevens: "I am very pleased to have the opportunity to spend more time in the car this week after completing my first Formula 1 race yesterday here in Abu Dhabi. I'm keen to get as much mileage as possible under my belt in order to further my chance of securing a drive for next season."
